

Why do I need to create a profile?

In order to register for and complete the course, you will need to set up an account. The account allows the course to be tied to your profile so that you may start and stop the course as you are able. It allows the course completion to be tied to your name for credential and certificate purposes. Please note: We will not give your information to any third-party vendors.